Description :

PDF-64489 | An empowering true story of one woman's survival through times of grief, poverty, degradation, humiliation and abuse in Edwardian London. Being a working class woman in the early 1900's in London was a hard life, but Alice Swanson worked tirelessly to provide all that she could for her family. A female cartminder in Covent Garden was not a common occurrence, but Alice loved the atmosphere and frie... Alice
