Description :

PDF-99464 | Edward VII became king in January 1901 and Britain, a very prosperous country after Victoria's long reign, now began a new era that would bring enormous changes. After the stuffiness of Victorian life, there was a desire for less clutter in the home, more fresh air and sunshine. The changes begun during the few years before the First World War would leave their mark on the whole country. This book... The Edwardian Home (Shire Library)
