Description :

PDF-fe01f | Over the three years since England's farcical appearance at the 2011 World Cup in New Zealand (dubbed in some corners as "Mike Tindall's stag party"), England have been building a team with the work ethic, humility, skill, and confidence to compare with that all-conquering, World Cup-winning 2003 side. Much of this is down to their coach, former burger-flipper and PE teacher, Stuart Lancaster.... The House of Lancaster: How England Rugby was Reinvented
