Description :

PDF-aabb7 | Gary Wolstenholme is a sporting legend, and the last of a dying breed—the career amateur golfer. A tall man and a short hitter, Gary had always kept the ball in play and relied on his magical short game. It is a style that has paid off. He has played in the Walker Cup six times, represented England on no less than 218 occasions, won the Amateur Championship twice, and has been head to head with ... The Long and the Short of It: The Autobiography of Britain's Greatest Amateur Golfer
