Description :

PDF-40062 | Just before the outbreak of the Second World War, Crozier wrote these personal reflections on the First. Published in 1937, Crozier's 'true confessions' argue that if England were to go to war again, it would bring about the end of civilisation. One of several controversial books authored by Crozier, The Men I Killed draws on his own military experiences to paint a brutal picture of war. In d... The Men I Killed
