Description :

PDF-c10a6 | It was only in the 1970s that the British authorities admitted that during World War 2 they had broken the German Enigma codes. From then onwards much of the analysis of the struggle against Nazi Germany has assumed that the British and their allies gained a vital advantage through their knowledge of German plans. The story of the breaking and use of the German transcripts is undoubtedly a fascinat... Without Enigma: The Ultra and Fellgiebel Riddles
